

Cobbs

Although opening times may be shorter in the Winter months, you can still visit any of your favourite attractions – and enjoy them without the Summer tourist rush!

We recommend:

The Loch Ness Centre & Exhibition, open 10am-3.30pm, Oct-Mar

www.lochness.com

Situated next door to our Drumnadrochit Hotel and equipped with exciting hi-tech displays, discover everything you want to know about the legend of the Loch Ness Monster and the surrounding area.

Jacobite Cruises on Loch Ness, available 362 days a year

www.jacobite.co.uk

Experience an exciting voyage on the legendary waters of Loch Ness. Soak up the scenery and listen to intriguing tales about the mysterious Nessie.

Nessieland, open 11am-3pm in Winter months

www.nessieland.co.uk

The perfect place to take the kids, Nessieland is a living organisation that believes in the Loch Ness Monster. Visit them to see why, you too, should believe.

Tomatin Distillery Visitor Centre, open 10.30am-4.30pm, Oct-Mar

www.tomatin.com

Try one of their fantastic tours to learn more about the whisky distilling process and even get the chance to bottle your own.

Cobbs

Inverness Museum & Art Gallery, open 11am-4pm, Nov-Mar (Tue-Sat)

www.highlifehighland.com/inverness-museum-and-art-gallery

Discover more about the unique history and culture of both Inverness and the surrounding Highlands with this exciting selection of artefacts.

Urquhart Castle, open 9.30am-4.30pm, Nov-Mar

Explore the ruined towers and halls of Urquhart Castle and receive breath-taking views across Loch Ness.

Inverness Castle, open 11.30am-4pm, Nov-Mar (Fri-Mon)

Found in the heart of Inverness, explore the furnished rooms and climb the tower for a 360 degree view of the city.

Glen Ord Distillery, open 10am-4pm, Nov-Feb (Mon-Sat)

www.malts.com/en-row/distilleries/glen-ord

Take a tour around the Glen Ord distillery and get the chance to taste of their smooth Scottish whiskies.

* Opening times may vary